THREE SHERIFFS OF KAUAI ARE HIT BY INDICTMENTS

Three deputy sheriffs of Kauai were indicted by the grand jury of the Garden Island last week. This is the first time since the late 19th century that the Kauai sheriff's office has been hit by indictments. The names of the men indicted were not available at the attorney general's office today, but it is understood that one is the man against whom the indictments on the Garden Island made sensational charges a week ago, in a partial report to Circuit Judge L. A. Dickey.

A peculiar feature of the affair is said to be that the indictment against this one deputy is not based on the sensational charges made public a week ago but on an offense alleged to have occurred so many years ago that it was "outlawed," and the accused official cannot be prosecuted for it. The reason for not indicting him on the more recent charges, it was said at the attorney general's office today, is that sufficient incriminating evidence could not be found to support prosecution.

The charges in general against all those accused are for complicity in smuggling or failure to perform the due duties of their office.

MURDER OF JAPANESE BEING CLEARED UP

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HILLO, March 26.—After several weeks of patient endeavor, the police have solved the killing of the old Japanese at a homestead camp at Paukaa, Papahānau. The story told at that time by a Japanese, Kono, to the effect that his house was on fire and that an old Japanese was being burnt to death in it, sounded fishy when the police went to the place and found a man with his head smashed in, lying on the floor of one of the rooms. Kono, who was arrested at once, has come through with a story to the effect that another man, Kabuna, did the actual killing. He declares that he had had a row with the man who was later found dead, but that he did not do the killing. The pair were drunk, Kono says, and in the struggle a stove was upset and the house caught fire. Kono says that he went out to get some water to quench the fire and that while he was away Kabuna, who had been asleep in another room, came in and started a fight over money matters with the old Japanese. The next thing that Kono saw was Kabuna grasping a hoe and striking the old man on the head. The police have arrested Kabuna. It is claimed by the sheriff's department that Kabuna is the man who has been wanted for some time past on account of a stabbing and cutting affray at Laupahoehoe, whereby a Japanese was laid at death's door for some weeks. Kono and Kabuna will tell all they know to the grand jury next week.

WHAT ACTION BY U. S. ON DRESDEN QUERIES GERMANY

will possibly condescend to express regret but this is only an unimportant detail, whereas the English naval officer may be sure that brutal contempt for neutrality finds the full approval of the British government, his orders being to destroy the German cruiser whenever he found her. This instruction included an order not to consider sovereign rights of neutral states. How brutally Chilean neutrality was violated is proved by the fact that shells of the British cruisers hit a Chilean ship nearby and splinters flew into Chilean territory, which practically amounts to a bombardment of the neutral Chilean port by the British cruisers because the German cruiser was inside.

"This is practical evidence to what amounts Great Britain's standing up for the weak, especially the neutral nations as advertised by British cabinet members. Chile was unable to defend herself.

"More interesting, however, it is what will be the attitude of the United States government in the face of such violation of neutrality of the South American republics. Also, what will the neutral states of Europe have to say to the profession of faith exhibited by the British guns of Juan Fernandez that no neutral waters or territory exist for the British navy in war-time."

WARM SENATE DEBATE OVER TURNER'S CHARGE AGAINST HILO ELECTRIC

The controversy between James C. Turner and the Hilo Electric Light Company was the subject of warm debate in the senate this afternoon, following the introduction by the majority of the judiciary committee of a proposed bill relating to extortion, designed to stop acts such as Turner charges the Hilo company used against him.

A. L. Castle, chairman of the judiciary committee, filed a minority report objecting to the bill on the ground that this and subjects of a like character should be handled by the public utilities commission, and that

German Cablegrams Tell of Developments in Fighting
East and West

The developments in the fighting on east and west zones, as told by German cablegrams, "rr" given in official cablegrams received here yesterday and today.

Today's cablegram also brings the news that Gen. von Kluck, the man who commanded the German right wing on its drive down through Belgium into France, has been wounded by shrapnel. His condition is given out as satisfactory.

The following cablegram was received yesterday:

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28.—German headquarters report March 27:

"Southeast of Verdun French attacks on the Meuse heights, near Combres and in the Woëvre plains near Marchville were decided in favor of the Germans after stubborn fighting in the Vosges at Malsmannweilerkopf only artillery duels are occurring.

"Russian charges in Augustown forest were repulsed. Between Pissek and Omulew several Russian attacks took place, all of which broke down under German fire. Near Wachs the Germans took prisoner 500 Russians."

TODAY'S SITUATION

The following cablegram was received today:

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 28.—German headquarters report, March 27:

"On the west front the day has been rather quiet. Only in the Argonne and Lorraine were there minor engagements, which resulted successfully for the Germans.

"Col. gen. von Kluck was slightly wounded by shrapnel while inspecting the advanced positions of his army. His condition is satisfactory.

"On the east German troops have stormed Tauraggen and taken prisoner 300 Russians. On the railroad between Wirballen and Kiwino, near Elbe, the Russian attack broke down with heavy losses for the Russians. In the district of Krasnopol more than 1000 Russians have been taken prisoner, among whom is a squadron of uhlans of guards, with horses. Five machine guns were also taken. The Russian attack northwest of Ciechanow has been repulsed."

INTEREST OF KAPOLANI ESTATE IN BUILDING IS OFFERED AT PUBLIC SALE

An official notice from the sheriff's office this afternoon says that the interest of the Kapiolani estate in the Kapiolani building, Alakea and King streets, is to be offered at public auction on Thursday, April 25, at noon. This action is taken, it is stated, by virtue of a writ of execution in the matter of C. B. Ripley and L. E. Davis against the Kapiolani estate, the execution being issued for the amount of $1290.

In acting on a measure of the kind the legislature would be passing over the utilities commission's head.

Metzger, Coke, President Chillingworth and one or two others took issue with Castle on the point, and in the end both reports were withdrawn, with Castle's promise to join with the majority of the committee in offering the bill again, possibly with one or two minor amendments.

REAL ESTATE SELLING IN OLAA DISTRICT

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence] HILLO, March 29.—There has been quite a revival in the way of real estate dealing in the Olaa district and the First Trust Company of Hilo has recently sold three blocks between Twelve and Fifteen Miles, Olaa.

The largest block disposed of was a hundred-acre tract at 14.34 Miles and the land is all under cane. The purchaser will continue to cultivate cane on the block. Another lot was of nine acres which is at Twelve Miles. Still another block was a 12-acre one at 13.12 Miles.

It has been a long time since any land has changed hands at Olaa and the recent sales seem to point to an increase in confidence on the part of those interested in the future of cane raising in the district.

Attorney John W. Cathcart, counsel for A. A. Wilson in the $20,000 damage suit brought against Wilson by M. A. Martin, has received permission from Circuit Judge Stuart to file a bill of exceptions to the court's recent decision. The decision to which Wilson takes exception upsets the jury's verdict in his favor and orders a new trial. On the exceptions to this decision Wilson's counsel will carry the case to the supreme court.
